PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ed Bice

Crofton Parade: Thank you to our participants in the parade. They were Bill and Fran Park riding in their restored VW, Dorothy Campbell, Ben Keen, Shirley De-Javanne, Marjorie Laios, Donna Minner, Evelyn Harris, and Dorothy and Ed Bice. The parade was lots of fun and certainly the chapter will participate next year. Representative John Sarbanes stopped by to see us. He was only too happy to appear in our parade photo.

Convention Delegates: There is still time for you to be a Chapter 1747 delegate to the National Convention in Louisville, Kentucky, September 7 thru 12, 2008. The chapter has some money allocated for delegates' expenses. The Maryland Federation is providing chapter assistance of $350 to any chapter sending a delegate to the convention. Please call me soon if you want to be a delegate.

This is the last newsletter until the September issue. I hope to see many of you at the picnic on Thursday, June 19th. If I don't, everyone have a most pleasant and healthy summer. I look forward to our next meeting in September. Thank you so much to the officers, committee chairs, and members for your efforts during this year. This is your chapter.

FEDERAL LEGISLATION

Paul Schuette

Judy Park, NARFE's long-time legislative director, retired at the end of May after a remarkable 40-year career with the organization. All of us should join in saying "thank you" for all she has done for NARFE and its members.

NARFE's primary mission is "to protect and improve the retirement benefits of federal retirees, employees and their families." As director of NARFE's legislative staff since its creation in 1976, Judy has been in the forefront of the never-ending effort to carry out that mission.

Some provisions of the federal retirement program we take for granted now wouldn't be there if it weren't for the work of Judy and other NARFE leaders.

Examples include increasing the government's share of health insurance premiums, participation by retirees in open seasons for the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program, restoring full annuities to retirees upon the death of a survivor, granting survivor benefits to second spouses and extending those benefits to spouses in post-retirement marriages.

Lobbying for legislation to improve retirement benefits is important but NARFE also has to play defense at times. It wasn't all that long ago that the reduction or deferral of COLAs was a perennial threat on Capitol Hill as Congress looked for ways to pare federal spending. That threat could come back to haunt us again in the current budget crunch.

Judy Park certainly is well aware that NARFE must maintain a strong presence on Capitol Hill.

"I think, for the foreseeable future, the big issues will be protection of benefits federal employees have that are being discounted and diminished in the private sector," she said. "The biggest challenge will be to protect what they have, particularly with inflation protection and the health benefits program that transfers from employment to retirement without any reductions."

To Judy, let us say, "Thank you." And to Dan Adcock, her successor as NARFE legislative director, "Keep it going and good luck."

2008 NATIONAL CONVENTION

Ed Bice

In the coming months, please read your NARFE Magazine for information about proposed resolutions, by-law changes and candidate information. All of which will be voted on at the convention in September. You can go to the NARFE website (NARFE.org) and click on National Convention to access the above information. Provide any input you have to any of the chapter delegates: Dorothy Campbell, Dorothy Bice, or Ed Bice.

CURRENT FEDERAL EMPLOYEES

From The Chapter 1127 Newsletter

HR5781, the Federal Employees Paid Parental Leave Act of 2008, if passed, would provide four weeks of paid parental leave for all federal employees, and would permit employees to use their accrued sick leave for an additional eight weeks of paid parental leave. No date has been set for floor consideration. HR5573 was introduced to allow FERS employees' accumulated sick leave to be partially "cashed out" at retirement, and HR5550 was introduced to raise the maximum age to qualify for coverage as a "child" under the health benefits program for federal employees. Over 20 cosponsors introduced HR 5718 to improve family and medical leave for federal employees and to require GAO to study the feasibility of offering disability insurance to federal workers. Contact your congressional representative to urge passage of these bills

FOR SALE: Show your chapter pride with our Chapter 1747 visor. It's bright red, with NARFE Chapter 1747 stitched in white. Adjustable. $17.00 each. Get yours at the June 19 picnic or call Dorothy Campbell, 301-464-6372.

NARFE R & R: An All-Year-Round Program

Although our chapter doesn't hold membership meetings or publish the chapter newsletter during the months of July and August, work of the chapter still goes on. Your executive board still meets. The program planning committee meets to plan programs for the upcoming year and other committees meet to carry out their responsibilities. Welcome letters are sent to new members and notices are sent to members in arrears. But, most important of all — recruitment of new members and retention of current members continues. This last item — known in NARFE as R & R never stops, and it shouldn't.

But R & R can't be done by only one person, or even by all the chapter officers. It's something that requires the assistance of all chapter members. And it's not that difficult; and you may be the best person for the job. After all, you joined the organization because you knew that NARFE is the only organization in the country that fights to protect the retirement benefits of federal employees and lobbies for improved benefits -- so it should be easy for you to convince others to join the organization you support!

And remember that your spouse, even if they're not a federal employee or retiree — is eligible to join NARFE and enjoy all the benefits of belonging that you enjoy.

Recruitment of New Members Pays Off

When you've convinced someone to join, the best thing you can do is to hand them a membership application to fill out and get them to write a check for $33.00 made out to NARFE (includes national and chapter dues). But be sure to enter your membership number on their application. Because when national NARFE gets the form, you'll get your reward: a check

CHAPTER PICNIC

Our Chapter Picnic will be held Thursday, June 19, at the East Pavilion at Allen Pond. The pavilion is covered, so this is a rain or shine event. Contact Barbara Wheatley (301-352-6241) or Mary Catloth (301-390-2206) if you have not already signed up but would like to attend.

for $8.00 from national NARFE for each new member you've recruited! (To obtain applications, contact me and I'll send you forms that come with a prepaid mailing envelope).

Or you can tell a prospective member that they can join online, either via www.NARFE.org or www.NARFE1747.org. But be sure to give the person your NARFE number to enter on their online application so you will get your $8.00 recruiting bonus from NARFE.

See, it's not that difficult. And it pays off. NARFE gets a new member, the new member gets a great organization to protect their retirement benefits, and you get a check. It's a win, win, win situation.
