PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ed Bice

I hope you read my call for volunteers to serve our chapter for the next two years as our officers and committee members (See the article titled ISO UFO's in the February Newsletter). This month there is a nomination form in the newsletter for your use in applying for those positions, or for nominating another member.

In the February 2009 NARFE magazine there were several articles that should make everybody glad they are NARFE members. On page 18 is an article detailing changes to the BC/BS health insurance plan. NARFE was the key player in getting the appropriate parties to reopen negotiations for non-emergency surgical procedures coverage. NARFE's efforts to push OPM to apply for Medicare employer payment were spelled out on page 12.

The NARFE magazine is a significant recruitment tool but only if we use it more frequently to show everyone how important NARFE membership is to current and retired workers.

You Are Invited

The NARFE Montgomery County Area Council will hold a pre-retirement meeting on Saturday, April 4, 2009 for active federal employees. The council is inviting three speakers to make presentations: (1) a financial planner; (2) David Snell, Director of Retirement Benefits Services from NARFE's National Office; and (3) Dick Strombotne, NARFE MD Federation president, to discuss NARFE's federal and state legislative programs. Federal employees who are still working but may be retiring in the next few years should plan on attending this event, which will be held at the Bauer Drive Community Center, 14625 Bauer Drive, Rockville, MD, starting at 9:30 AM. The program will begin at 10:00 AM. No pre-registration is required; currently-employed federal employees are encouraged to bring their friends and colleagues to this meeting.

FEDERAL LEGISLATION

Joseph Young

On February 13, 2009, both houses of Congress passed a $787 billion stimulus package designed to create or save millions of jobs through new investments in energy, transportation, health care, construction, and education projects while reviving social safety-net programs that have seen their funding reduced or remain stagnant for three decades.

The bill passed the House 246 to 183 without any support from the Republican side of the aisle. The Senate passed the bill 60 to 38 with help from three courageous Republican Senators. The Senate vote was not without political theatrics; the Senate proceedings remained open for nearly six long hours as Senate leaders awaited the return of Senator Sherrod Brown (D-Ohio) from his mother's wake to cast the decisive 60th aye vote.

The stimulus package combines tax cuts with new spending designed specifically to help jump start the nation's ailing economy by repairing or replacing aging roads, bridges, and electricity grid. It will also include computerizing healthcare records and investing in alternative energy research to address climate change and decrease our dependence on foreign oil.

Three-quarters of the money is planned to reach state capitals, businesses, and individual taxpayers by the end of September 2010.

STATE LEGISLATION

Ed Bice

Members of the State Legislative Committee (SLC) and others presented written and verbal testimony before the Senate Budget and Taxation and House Ways and Means Committees during the week of February 9th. The following bills were heard: SB 185 - Senior Tax Relief Act of 2009, SB 236 - Income Tax Subtraction Modification - Federal Pensions, and SB 282 - Income Tax Credit for Long Term Care Premiums. Also HB 68, and HB 240 - Income Tax Exemption Amounts - Blind and Elderly Individuals, and HB 156 - State Property Tax Homeowner's Property Tax - Assessment Cap Reduction.

You are encouraged to write, e-mail, or telephone your senator and delegates encouraging them to support and vote for the above legislation. Please help the SLC to get more money in your pockets and/or keep money in your pocket.

Maryland Federation Convention Will Be Held May 3-6

Maryland NARFE will be holding its biennial convention in Ocean City, MD at the Clarion Fontainebleau Hotel on May 3-6, 2009. This is a great chance for you to join in deciding who the new leadership of Maryland NARFE will be, to take part in setting new directions for Maryland NARFE, to meet other NARFE members from all over Maryland, and to have a good time.

NARFE's policies are decided by its members through their convention delegates. If you have an idea for improving NARFE, or the Maryland Federation, you can submit your idea as a resolution. The deadline for this convention has passed, but its not too early for next year. Consult with President Ed Bice on the appropriate way to do it.

Hotel rates for the convention are a bargain compared with regular season rates. Fees for registration at the convention and the banquet are reasonable as well, and there may be financial assistance for the registration and banquet. Anyone interested in attending should contact Ed Bice, who can provide more details.

Contest, Recognition, and Pin: Reasons to Recruit New Members

Chapter Recruiting Contest: Last year, national NARFE held a nationwide recruitment contest for chapters, awarding cash prizes to those which recruited the most members. Unfortunately, our chapter wasn't even in the running. But we've got another opportunity this year with NARFE's new recruitment contest—about which you'll learn more from NARFE magazine and our newsletters.

Member Award Program: NARFE will send a "finder's fee"—a check for $8.00 to members who recruit active federal employees. In addition, recruiters will receive a "recruiter recognition pin" and their name will be listed in the NARFE publication, "Recruiter's Journal."

Selling NARFE to Potential Members

The Value of Belonging: NARFE is the only organization that exclusively protects the earned benefits of federal retirees by its assertive legislative representation on national and state levels and its relationship with OPM. Also, members receive the informative national magazine, have access to the website and e-mail messages; health, life, dental and long-term care insurance programs; a credit union; and travel, moving and other product discounts. At the chapter level, NARFE members enjoy informative meetings and a monthly newsletter, participation in community, legislative and social events, and the opportunity to meet/interact with other federal retirees/active employees.

Recruitment materials and membership forms are available at membership meetings or contact me by telephone, 301-464-6372 or by e-mail, Dcbowie@aol.com.
